

Photo: DALL-E/PRIF

ICT4Peace

The Role of Information and Communication Technology in (Digital) Peacebuilding

Dialogue Panel connecting Research & Practice | Thursday, September 21, 2023 | 16⁰⁰–18⁰⁰
Georg-Christoph-Lichtenberg-Haus | Großer Saal | Dieburger Str. 241 | 64287 | Darmstadt

What are the possibilities and risks of promoting peacebuilding through Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs)? What are the needs and challenges of practitioners? And how can they benefit from scientific findings?

Experts who work in research and practice of peacebuilding are brought together to discuss these questions as part of "Science. Peace. Security 2023", this year co-organized by TraCe.

Moderation

Prof. Dr. Markus Lederer TU Darmstadt & TraCe

Follow the panel via Livestream!

Panel

Laura Guntrum PEASEC TU Darmstadt & TraCe

Fabian Hofmann Geneva Graduate Institute

Julia Hofstetter ICT4Peace Foundation

Charles Martin-Shields German Institute of Development and Sustainability

Nina Strumpf Berghof Foundation

The dialogue panel is free of charge, all civil society actors and citizens are warmly welcome.

Registration is (only for the dialogue panel) not compulsory, but will help us organize the event: <https://sps.peasec.de/sps23/registration/>